

PARTICIPANTS

LEAD ASSOCIATE TRAINING -- COHORT 13

ASSOCIATES
	Arifah Dewi Masithoh CSR Group Officer at PT Antam Tbk PT Antam Tbk is mining and metal company operating throughout Indonesia, and undertaking exploration, processing, refining, shipping, etc. As CSR Group Officer Arifah is responsible for developing CSR programs, supporting the team in developing CSR policy that involves CSR indicators, also also handling claims from community. She was majoring Communication and Community Development (Agriculture Social and Economic) and graduated as Agriculture Bachelor at IPB (Bogor Agriculture Institute), Bogor, Indonesia in 2005.
	Brigitta Isworo Laksmi Assistent of Humaniora Desk Editor of Kompas Daily Newspaper Kompas is a leading national daily newspaper. Brigitta is responsible in planning and assigning coverage on technology, environment and health, also providing perspective into the issues and deciding on how the story should be put in the daily national Kompas newspaper. Responsible also for organizing a panel discussion on environment and social issues. Her Bachelor degree of Geophysics and Meteorology was obtained at Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB) in 1987. And now is studying Philosophy at the STF Driyarkara (academy), Jakarta, Indonesia

David Sutasurya

Executive Director of Yayasan Pengembangan Biosains & Bioteknologi (Foundation for Biosciences and Biotechnology Development)

YPBB is engaging in campaign for organic/environmentally sustainable lifestyle, mainly directed to middle-up income urban group. David is its Executive Director, responsible for directing and managing all aspects of the organization activities, including strategic planning and supervision. As needed, David might involve in training design, delivery and product development. Majoring in Biology, David graduated from his undergraduate program from Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB), Bandung, Indonesia, in 1989.

Dian Tri Irawaty

Networking Division at Urban Poor Consortium (UPC)

UPC is a not-for-profit organization focusing on urban poverties issues, and empowering the poor people to address the issues. Dian builds and strengthens the networks, as well as coordinates and informs UPC programs to all the networks. She was international laws at the University of Indonesia, Jakarta, and received her Bachelor's degree in 2005.

Edward Abdurrahman

Head of Planning and Reporting Section at the Directorate of Settlement Development of the Ministry of Public Works

The Directorate serves in area development and provides infrastructures to improve quality of settlement, including road networks, water supply, drainage and sewage networks, as well as emergency supports in disaster areas.

Edward's duties include preparing settlement planning policy through discussion with the multi-stakeholders and disseminating central government's settlement planning policies and strategies to the related local government institutions. Graduated from Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB), Bandung, Indonesia in 1985 as Urban and Regional Planner, Edward continued his study and received his MSc in 2000 at IHS Netherlands and Lund University (Sweden) on Urban Housing Management.

F. P. Anggriani Arifin

Researcher at Urban and Regional Development Institute

Anggriani Arifin is a researcher at the Urban and Regional Development Institute (URDI), a non-profit institute that aims at the realization of sustainable urban and regional development. Her educational background encompasses of Bachelor Degree in Sociology from University of Indonesia, Jakarta and Master Degree in Social Policy from University of Birmingham, United Kingdom. A large portion of her work is assisting execution of projects in relation with urban environmental management, good governance and land development, serving as a researcher or as an expert, with clients ranging from governmental institutions, donor agency and international/ local NGOs. She is now currently focus on developing schemes on community-based initiatives at the city level.

Grace Elizabeth

Executive Director of Eco Trust Fund

Grace has been with Eco Trust Fund—a not-for-profit fund management founded by leading stakeholders of Citarum river in West Java, consisting of government, business, academic and community institutions, encouraging sustainable development with participation and collaboration—since 2007. Her educational background encompasses of Bachelor Degree in Industrial Engineering from University of Maranatha Christian, and Master’s Degree of Business Administration from Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB), in Bandung, Indonesia

Grace’s duties include planning, reviewing, evaluating, and reporting the institution’s performance.

Hening Parlan

Secretary General of Masyarakat Penanggulangan Bencana Indonesia (Indonesian Society for Disaster Management)

MPBI deals with disaster management, in terms of communication and cooperation with members and like-minded organizations, national and international; campaign, advocacy, consultation and publication.

Hening's responsibilities include establishing communication and networking with members, nation-wide; seeking potential donor and partnership for sustainability programs; representing MPBI in national as well as international forum. Her educational background is Sociology, graduated in 1995 from Sebelas Maret University, Solo, Indonesia

Mira Sophia Lubis

Lecturer at Pusat Penelitian Kehati dan Masyarakat Lahan Basah (Center for Wetland, People and Biodeversity), Universitas Tanjungpura

University of Tanjungpura is one of the important academic institutions in West Kalimantan Province, Indonesia, which provides educational services for human resource development in the region. Mira serves as a lecturer and researcher in the university. Her educational background is Architecture and Urban Planning and Design. She received her Master's degree in 1998 from Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB), Bandung, Indonesia.

Nur Muhammad Gito Wibowo

Urban Designer at Planning and Development Workshop

Gito's office, PDW, is an Urban Design and Architecture company, serving nationally and internationally in urban design, architecture, master planning, and landscape, etc.

Gito's main duties as Urban Design and Design Manager include managing all the planning of urban design and proposal projects as well as maintaining the work load balance of each subordinate designer.

	Gito took his Master's degree of Architecture at Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Leuven, Belgium, and graduated in 2003. His Bachelor of Technical Engineering was obtained at Bandung Institute of Technology, Bandung, Indonesia.
	R. Pekik Ginong Pratidino Lecturer of Dept. Of Urban and Regional Planning, Institut Teknologi Nasional (ITENAS), Bandung ITENAS (National Technology Institute) is a private university in Bandung. The Department of Urban and Regional Planning focuses its learning program in building competencies in urban management with about 200 students from different parts of Indonesia. Pekik's duties and responsibilities are in designing and conducting the learning process. He is teaching in site planning, studio program, and supervising projects focusing on ecological cultural, historical, design and tourism issues. His educational background encompasses urban planning, history, theory and rchitecture critisicism. He took his master's at Bandung Institute of Technology, Bandung, Indonesia, in 2004.
	Ryyld Ipbtas Yusri Learning, Training and Development Staff of PT Antam Tbk Ryyld is a member of Human Resources Core Team assigned to develop HR Excellence, Charter and MasterPlan at PT Antam Tbk, a mining and metal company operating throughout Indonesia, and undertaking exploration, processing, refining, shipping, etc. He is also a member of the Sustainability Development Team. His main responsibilities include developing learning strategy and objectives, managing Antam's learning programs, and reporting on sustainability related to CSR. Ryyld's educational background is Industrial Engineering from Gajah Mada University, Yogyakarta, Indonesia. Graduated in 2000.

Vera Revina Sari

Head of Subdivision for Spatial and Building Management at BAPEDA DKI JKT (Regional Planning Board of Jakarta Provincial Government)

The BAPEDA DKI Jakarta develops policies for the regional planning, and also establishes development plans, budget strategy, provincial spatial plan, etc. Vera manages the planning and evaluation process of Jakarta spatial plan, prepares long-term, mid-term and annual development plans for spatial and building management, also prepares and reviews its policies and regulations.

Vera obtained her Bachelor in Regional and City Planning from Institute Technology of Bandung, Bandung, Indonesia and her Masters in Urban Engineering from University of Tokyo, Japan, in 2001

Y. J. Harwanto

General Manager at PT Pembangunan Jaya Ancol, Tbk

PT Pembangunan Jaya Ancol, Tbk is a property company that develops integrated tourism facility. Its core businesses are recreational facilities, resorts and property. As the General Manager of the Corporate Plan Department, Harwanto's responsibilities are planning and execution of the corporate communications, as well as planning and implementation of the community development as part of its CSR program. His educational background is Architecture from Diponegoro University, Semarang, Indonesia.

PESERTA TAMU

Marianne Fransiska
Supervisor, PT Lippo Karawaci

Since 2005 Siska has been working with PT Lippo Karawaci BK, a leading broad-based property company in Indonesia which operates three primary business units: housing & land development, hospitality & infrastructure, healthcare. Her responsibilities include report to the Departement head, Propose urban planning standards & Implement company's standards in all projects, manage urban feasibility studies, supervise & monitoring urban design & planning works, design site plan / master plan

Siska obtained her Bachelor in Architectural Engineering from Institute Technology of Bandung, Bandung, Indonesia in 2004.

Nana Fitriana Firman
Program Coordinator for Aceh, WWF-Indonesia

Nana has been with WWF-Indonesia, a conservation organization, part of WWF global, aiming to conserve Indonesia ecosystem and biodiversity for the well-being of present and future generations, since 2005. Her responsibilities in Aceh were developing the Green Reconstruction Guidelines for Aceh and coordinating the implementation of the guidelines through various initiatives: Timber for Aceh; Green Coast, Sustainable Aquaculture, Green Province for Aceh, etc.

Nana obtained her Master's in Urban Design from Pratt Institute, New York, in 1997, while her bachelor of Industrial design was received in 1995 from University of Bridgeport, Cincinnati, USA.